

Hoby Village Trail

Remembering all from the village who went off to war during 1914-18 and those who did not return.

Hoby & District Local History Society

Established in 2013 the Society is a voluntary organisation set up to research and record the history of the Leicestershire villages of Hoby, Rotherby, Ragdale and Brooksby.

An initial priority focus has been a First World War project in Hoby, comprising:

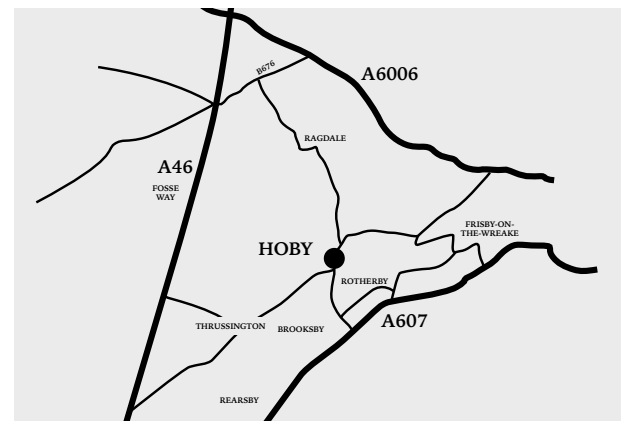

- “For King & Country” a book commemorating all who went to war
- Forget Me Not - an exhibition of Hoby’s Ancestors during the war
- Half Muffled Peals on the 100th anniversary of those who lost their lives
- Hoby’s Great War – a theatrical interpretation of local life during the period
- This Village Trail - showing where those in For King & Country had lived

The Society’s website details the open bi-monthly meetings and a wide range of local historic research and links

Model team for the trail were: Enid Boesser, Sue Fleming, Diane Horsfield, Steve Horsfield, Nicky Stephen and Angus Walker

How to find Hoby

Please park safely on our Main Street, outside the Village Hall, LE14 3DR. Only use the popular Blue Bell Inn’s car park if you are intending to be a patron there.

The painting of the village on the cover by JT Proctor is reproduced by permission of Bob Ellis
